

Location of Wyse Fork NRHP District

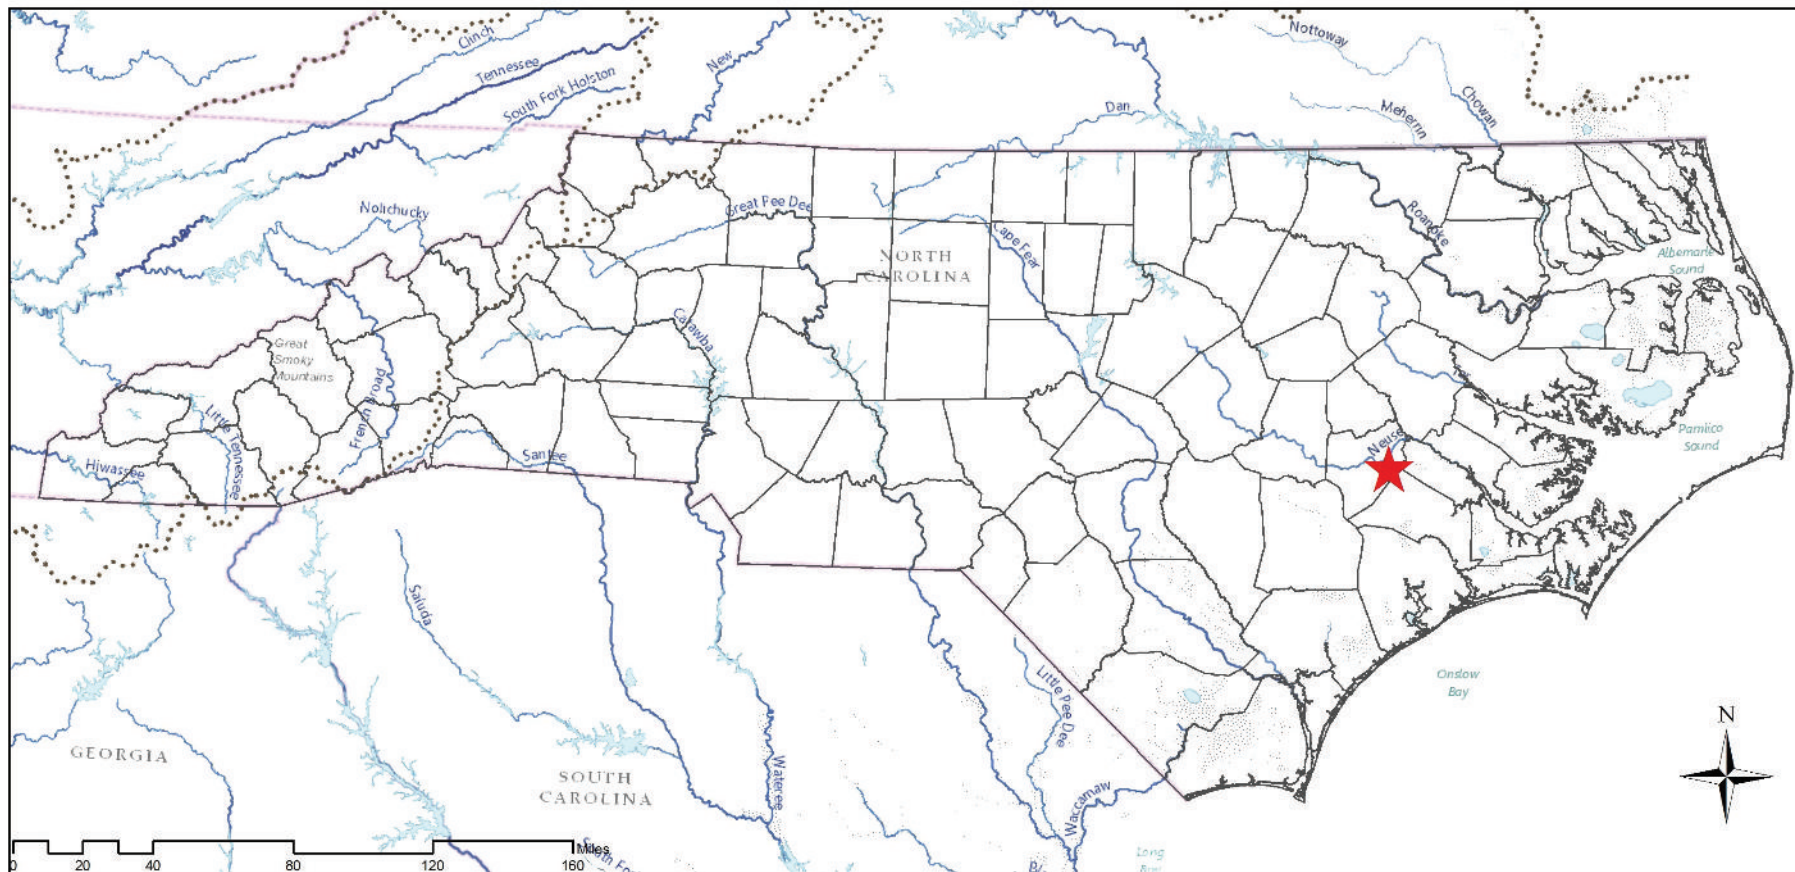

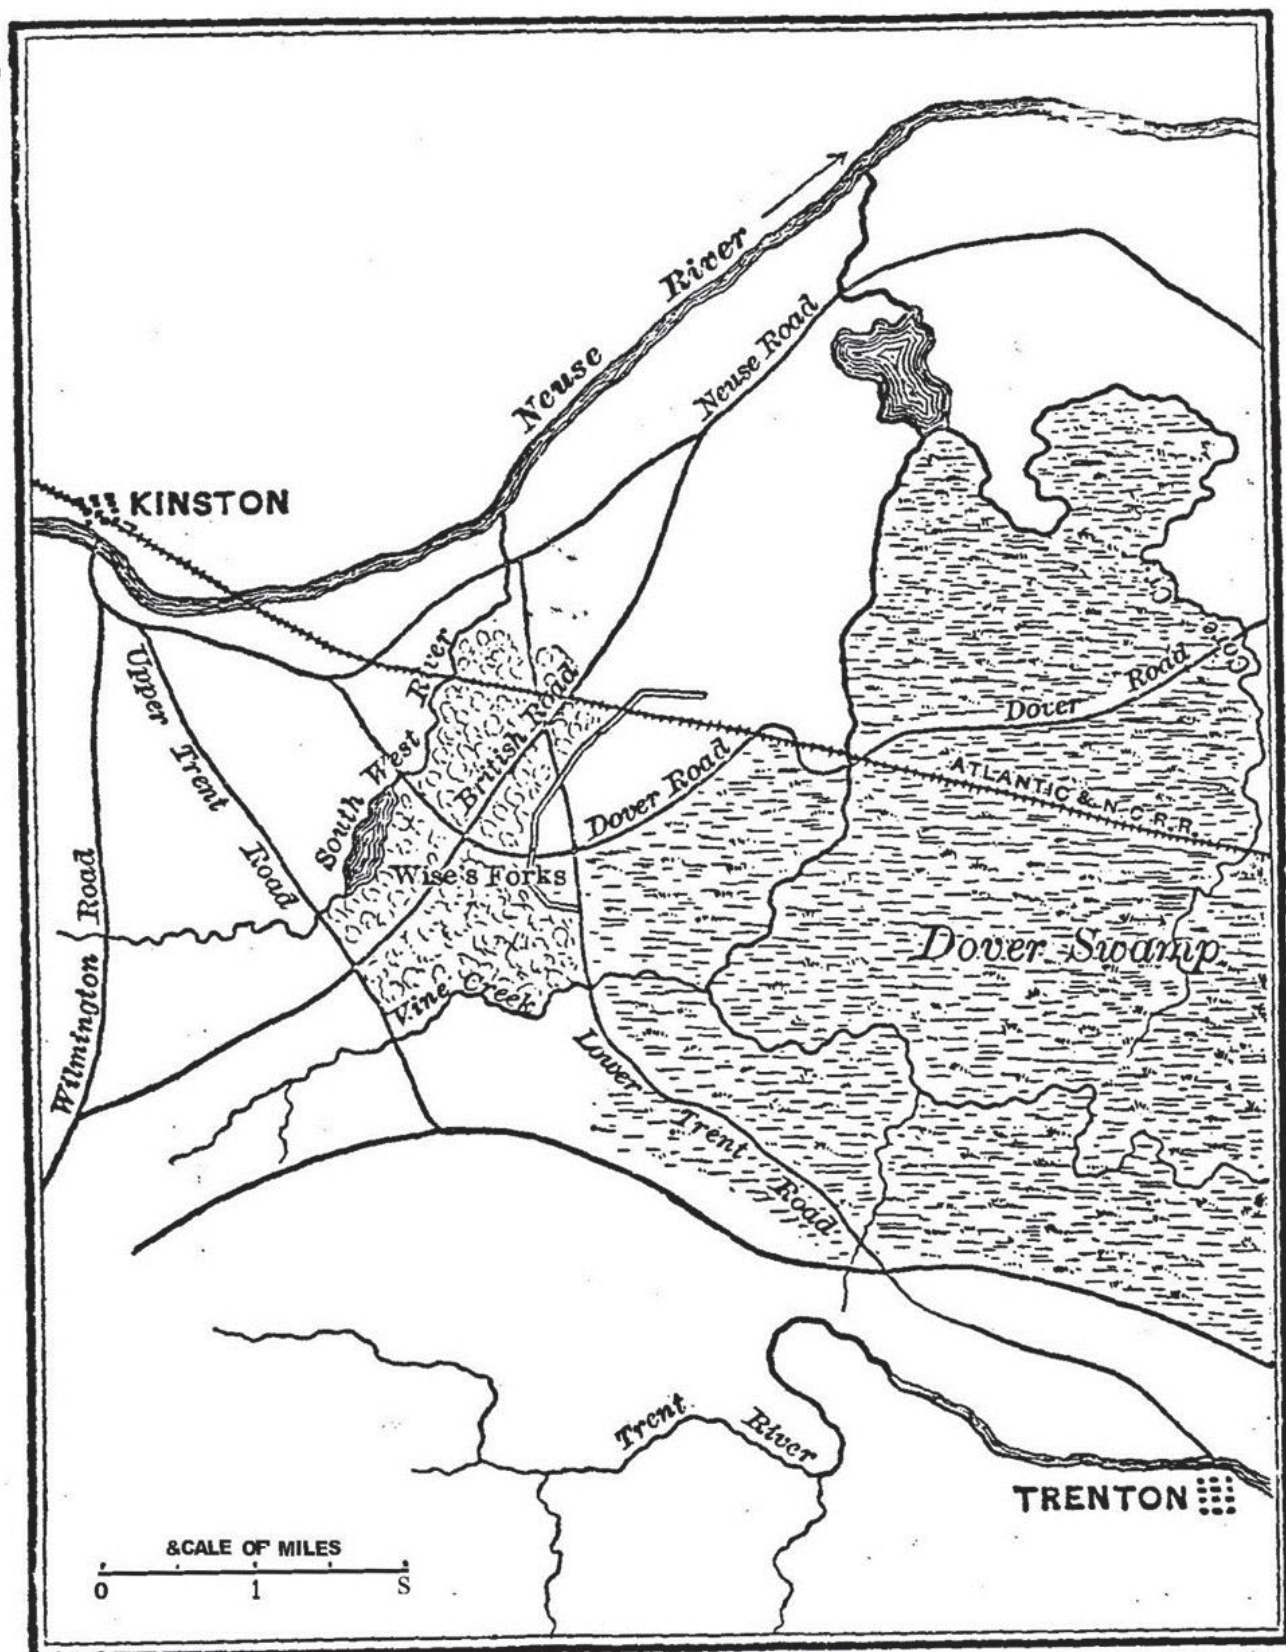

Figure 1: Wyse Fork National Register of Historic Places District Location, Kinston, NC

Map of Battle of Kinston,

Figure 2: Map of Wyse Fork Battlefield Showing Areas of Forest and Swampland from Cox (1902:157)

Wyse Fork Battlefield National Register of Historic Places District Boundary

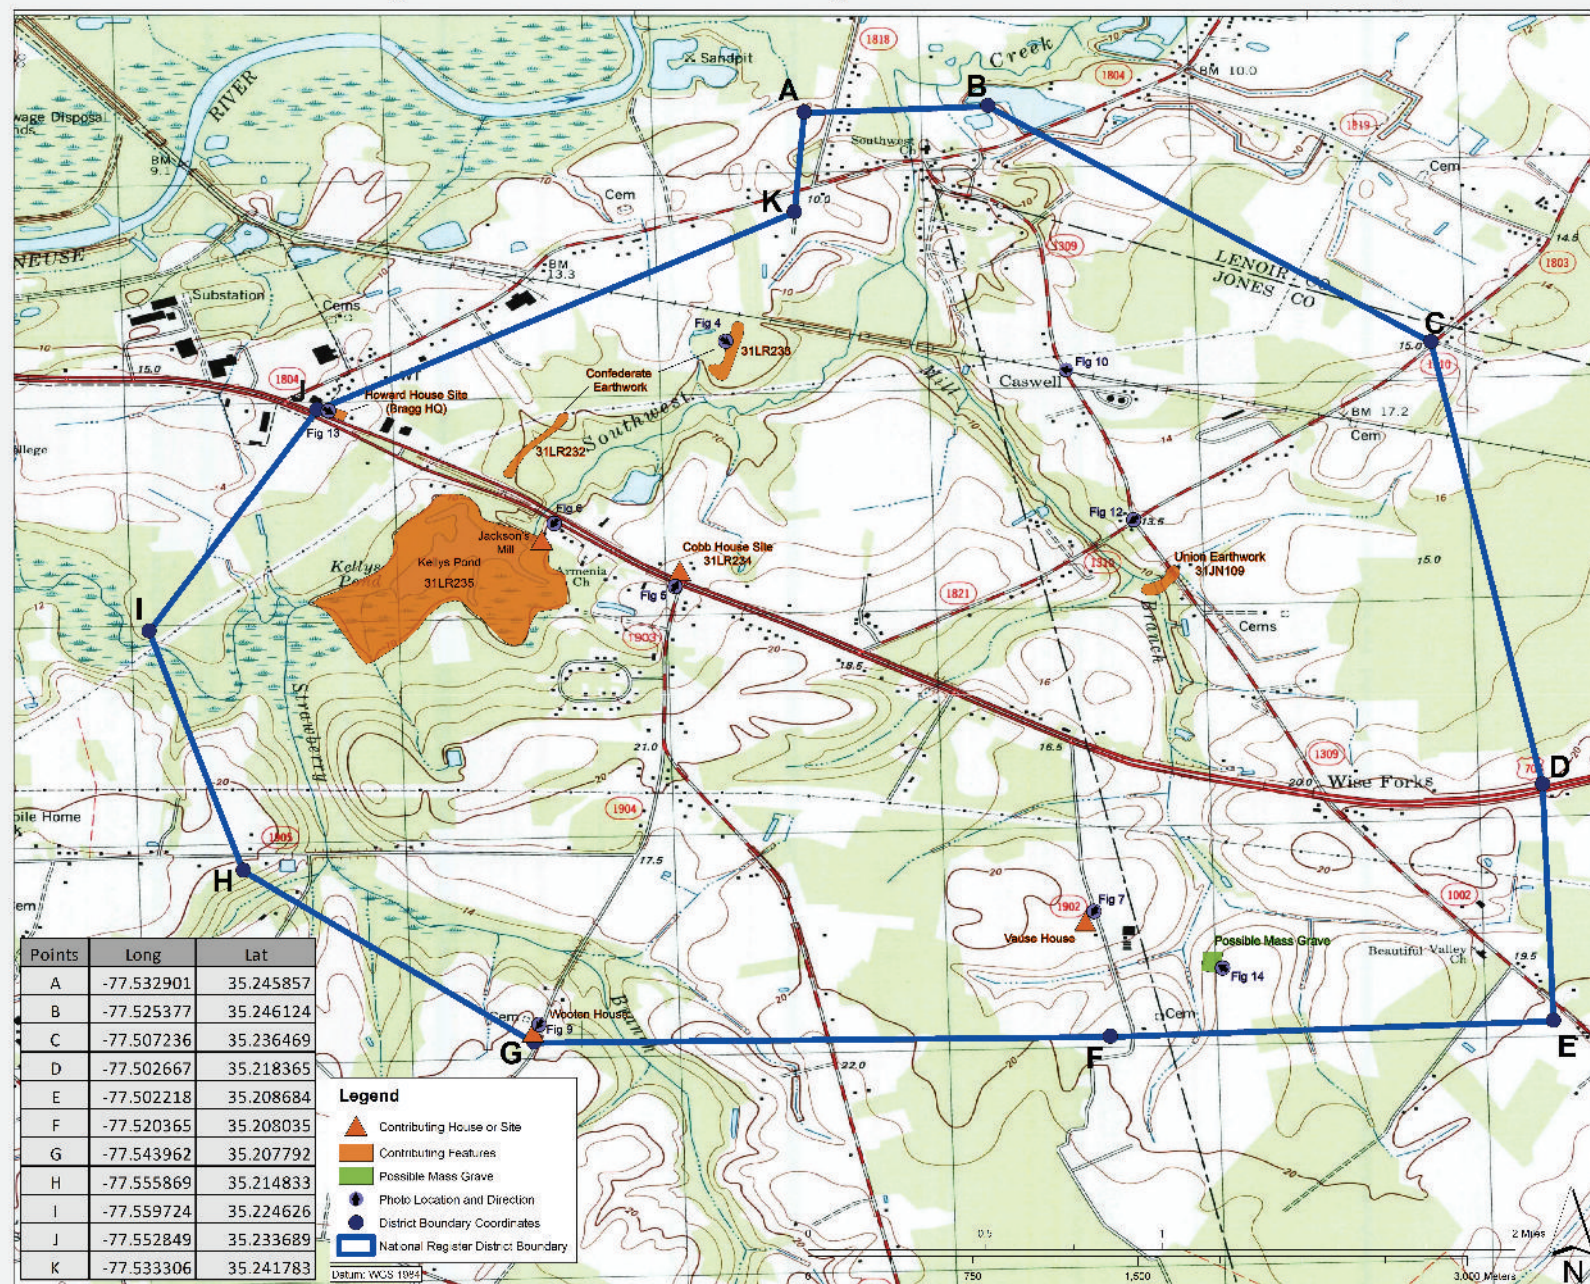

Figure 3: Rivermont USGS Quadrangle Showing the Location of Contributing Resources

Figure 4: Site 31LR233, Remnant of Confederate Earthworks, Looking SE (Toward Union Lines, March 1865)

Figure 5: Site 31LR234, Jackson/Cobb/Tolles House Looking North

Figure 6: Site 31LR235, Jackson/Cobb/Kennedy/King Mill Site, Dam, and Kellys Pond, Looking SW

Figure 7: Robert Bond Vause House, Looking SW

Figure 8: Frank Lesley's Engraving of the Battle of Wyse Fork
(Note Vause House and Jackson's Mill to the Right of the Engraving)

Figure 9: John Council Wooten House, Looking NW

Figure 10: Southern Railroad Alignment of the Atlantic & North Carolina RR
(Looking W Toward Kinston at the Intersection of the Lower Trent Road – S.R. 1309)

[illegible]

Figure 11: Roads Noted in Accounts of the 1865 Battle (From Hagood 1910)

Figure 12: View of British Road, S.R. 1310 (Looking SW from its Intersection with the Lower Trent Road – S.R. 1309)

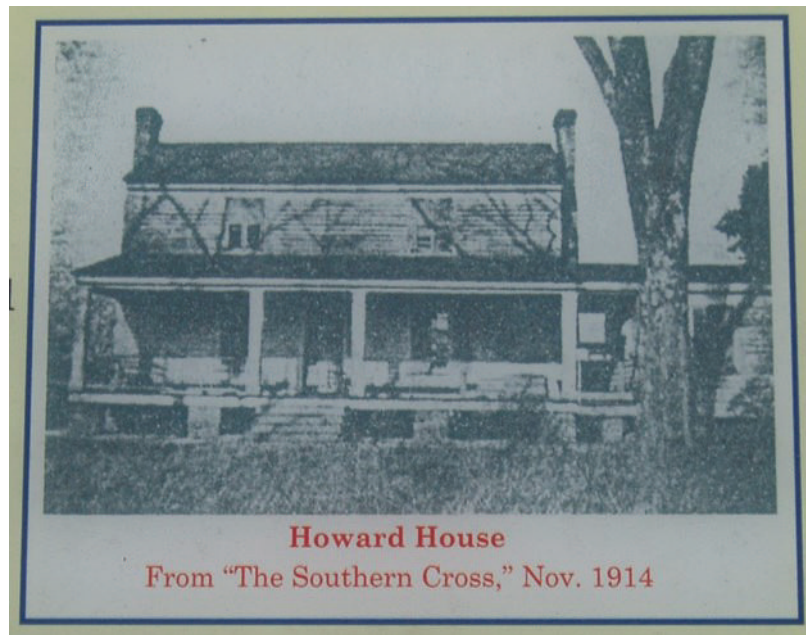

Figure 13: Howard House (Top: 1914 Photo Looking North; Bottom: 2014 Photo of the Location Looking East)

Figure 14: Possible Mass Grave, Looking NW

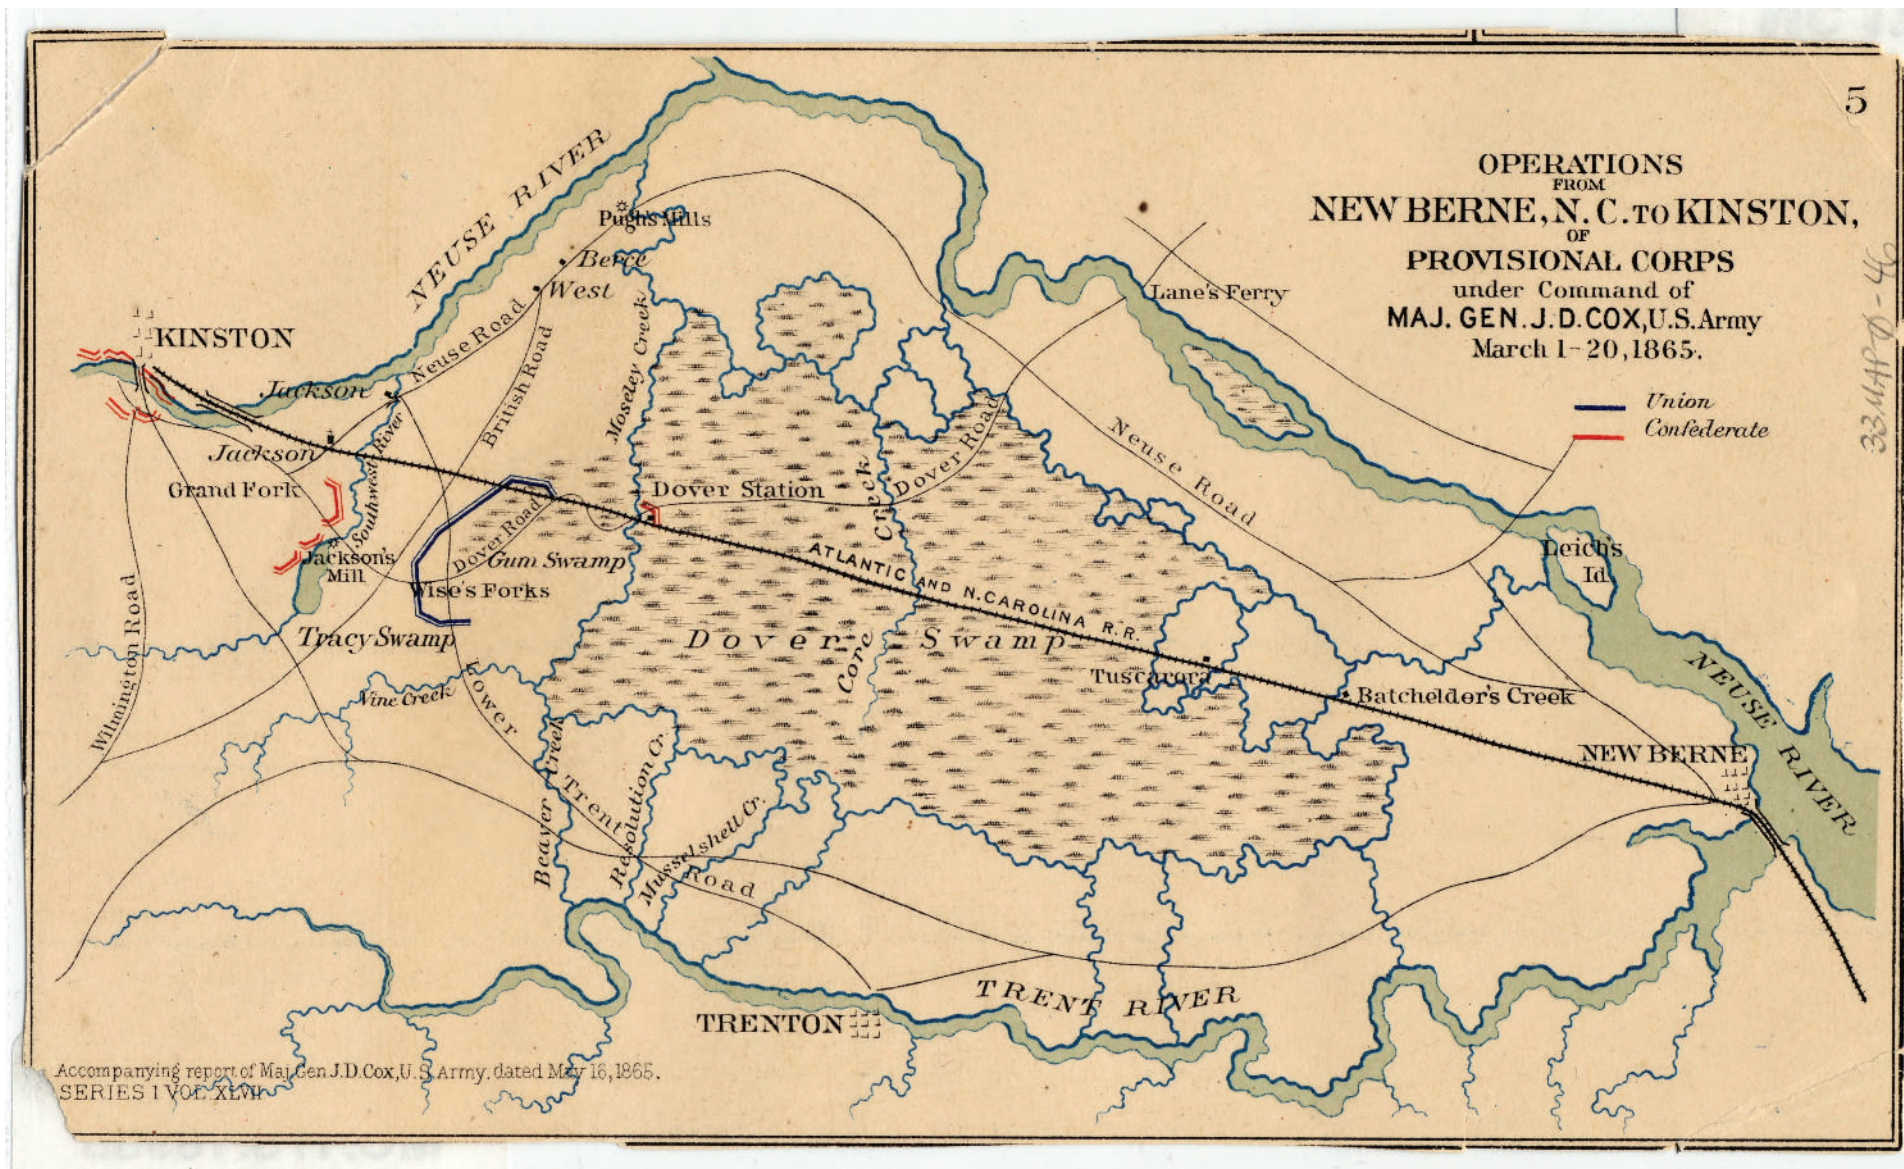

Figure 15: Key Roads and Noted Points along the Route to Wyse Forks during the 1865 Union March toward Kinston (Based on Cox 1865)

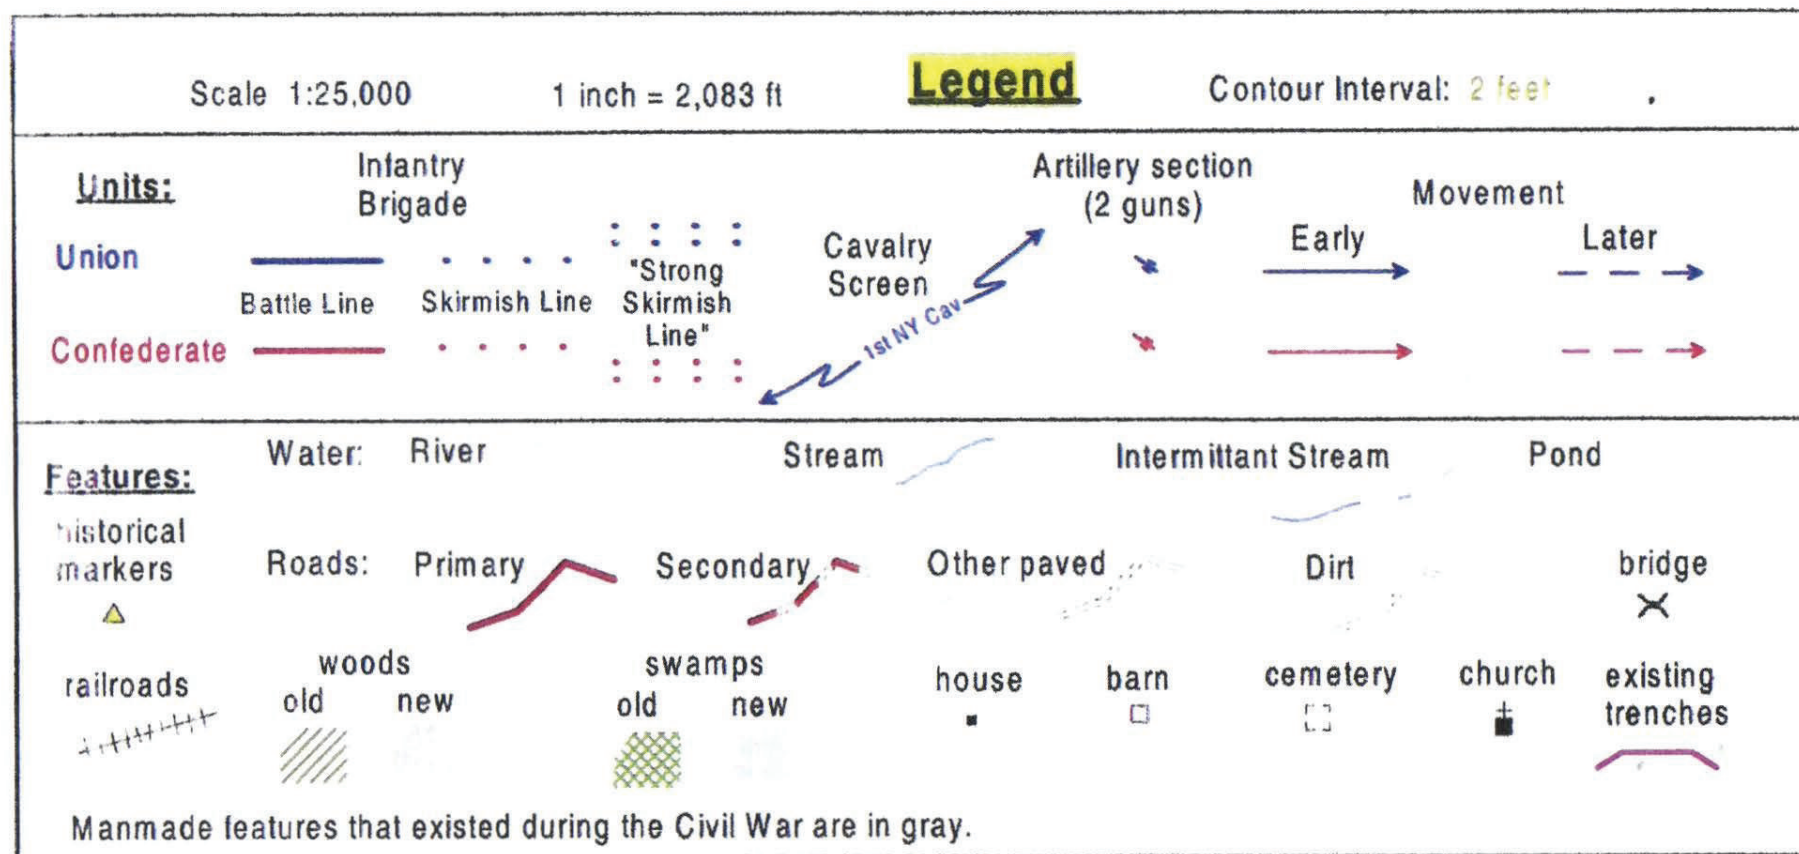

Figure 16: Key to Operations Matrix, Based on Collier (2004)

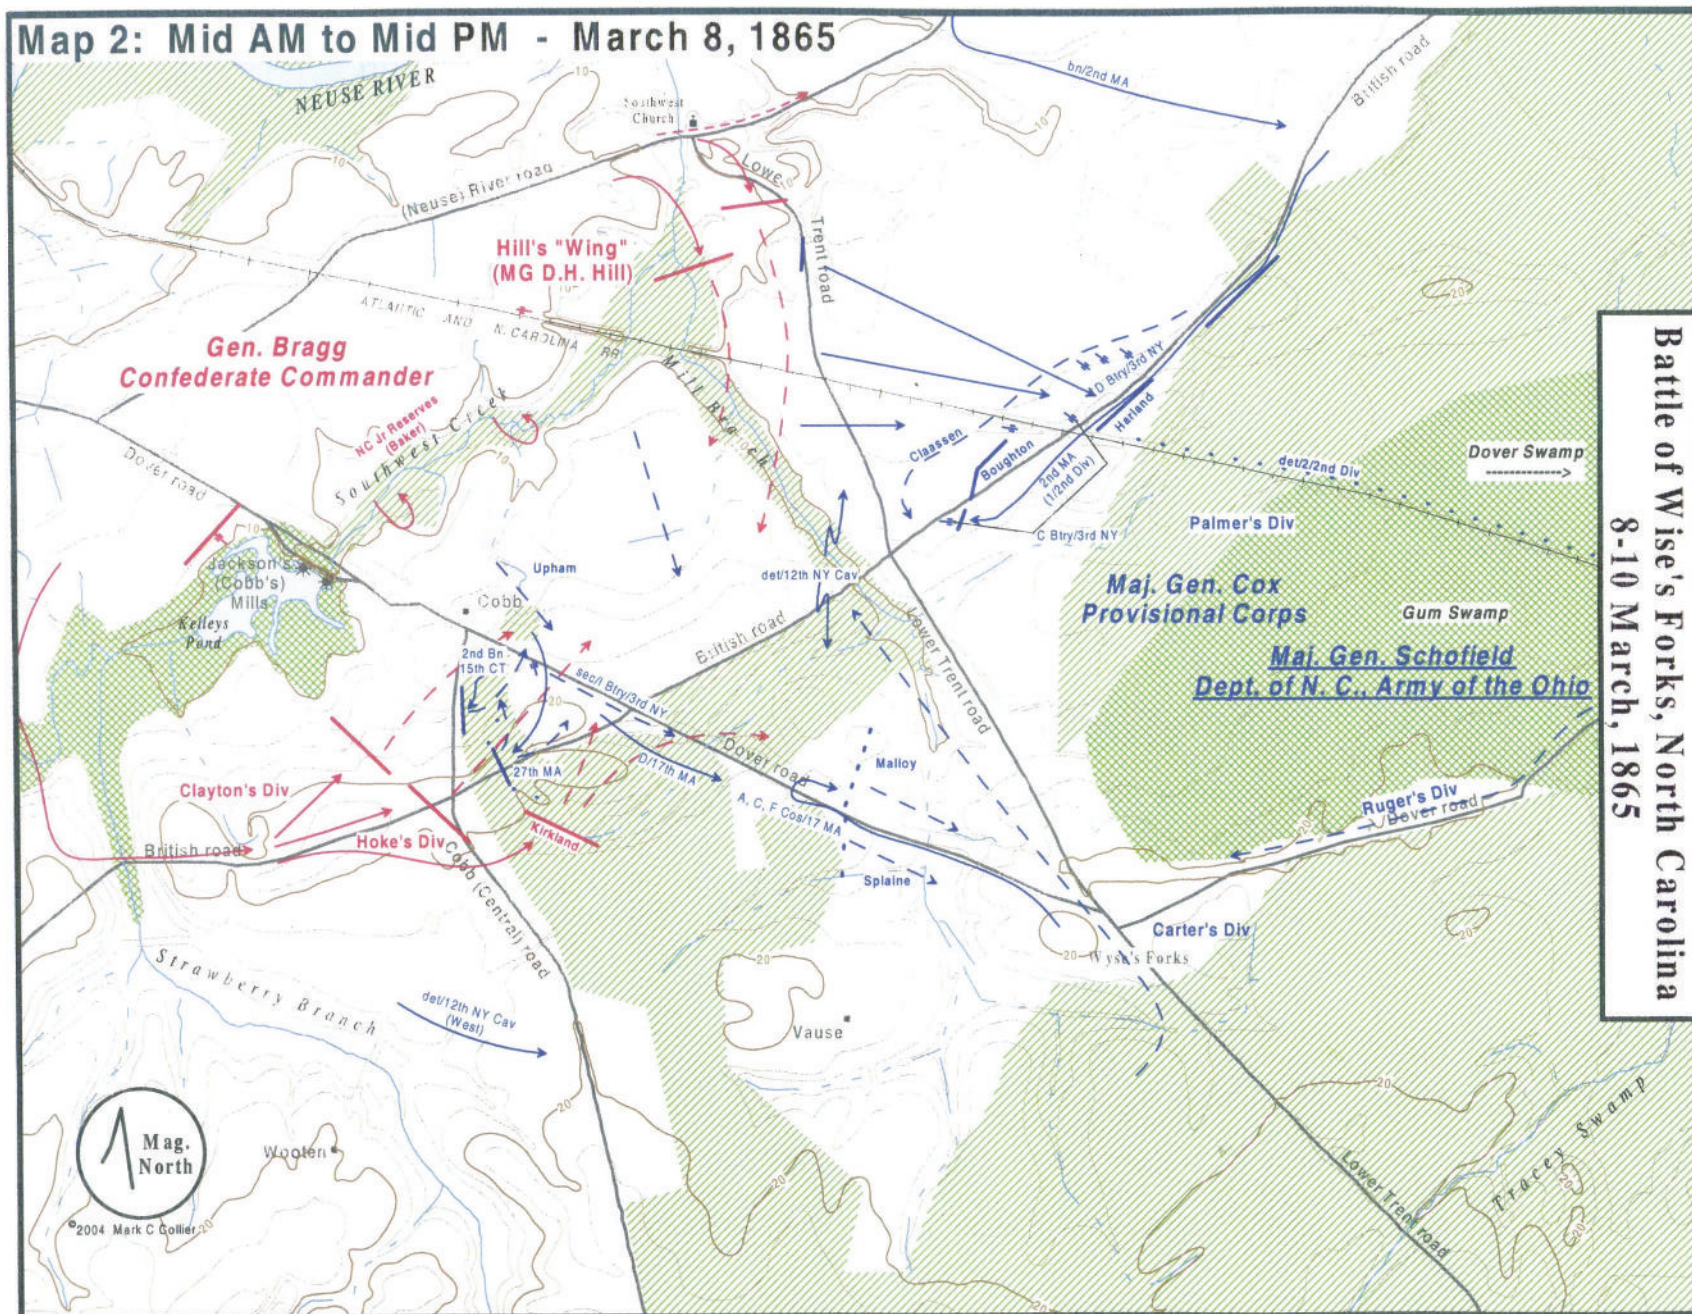

Figure 18: Actions of the Union and Confederate Troops, Mid-Morning to Mid-Afternoon March 8, 1865 (Collier 2004)

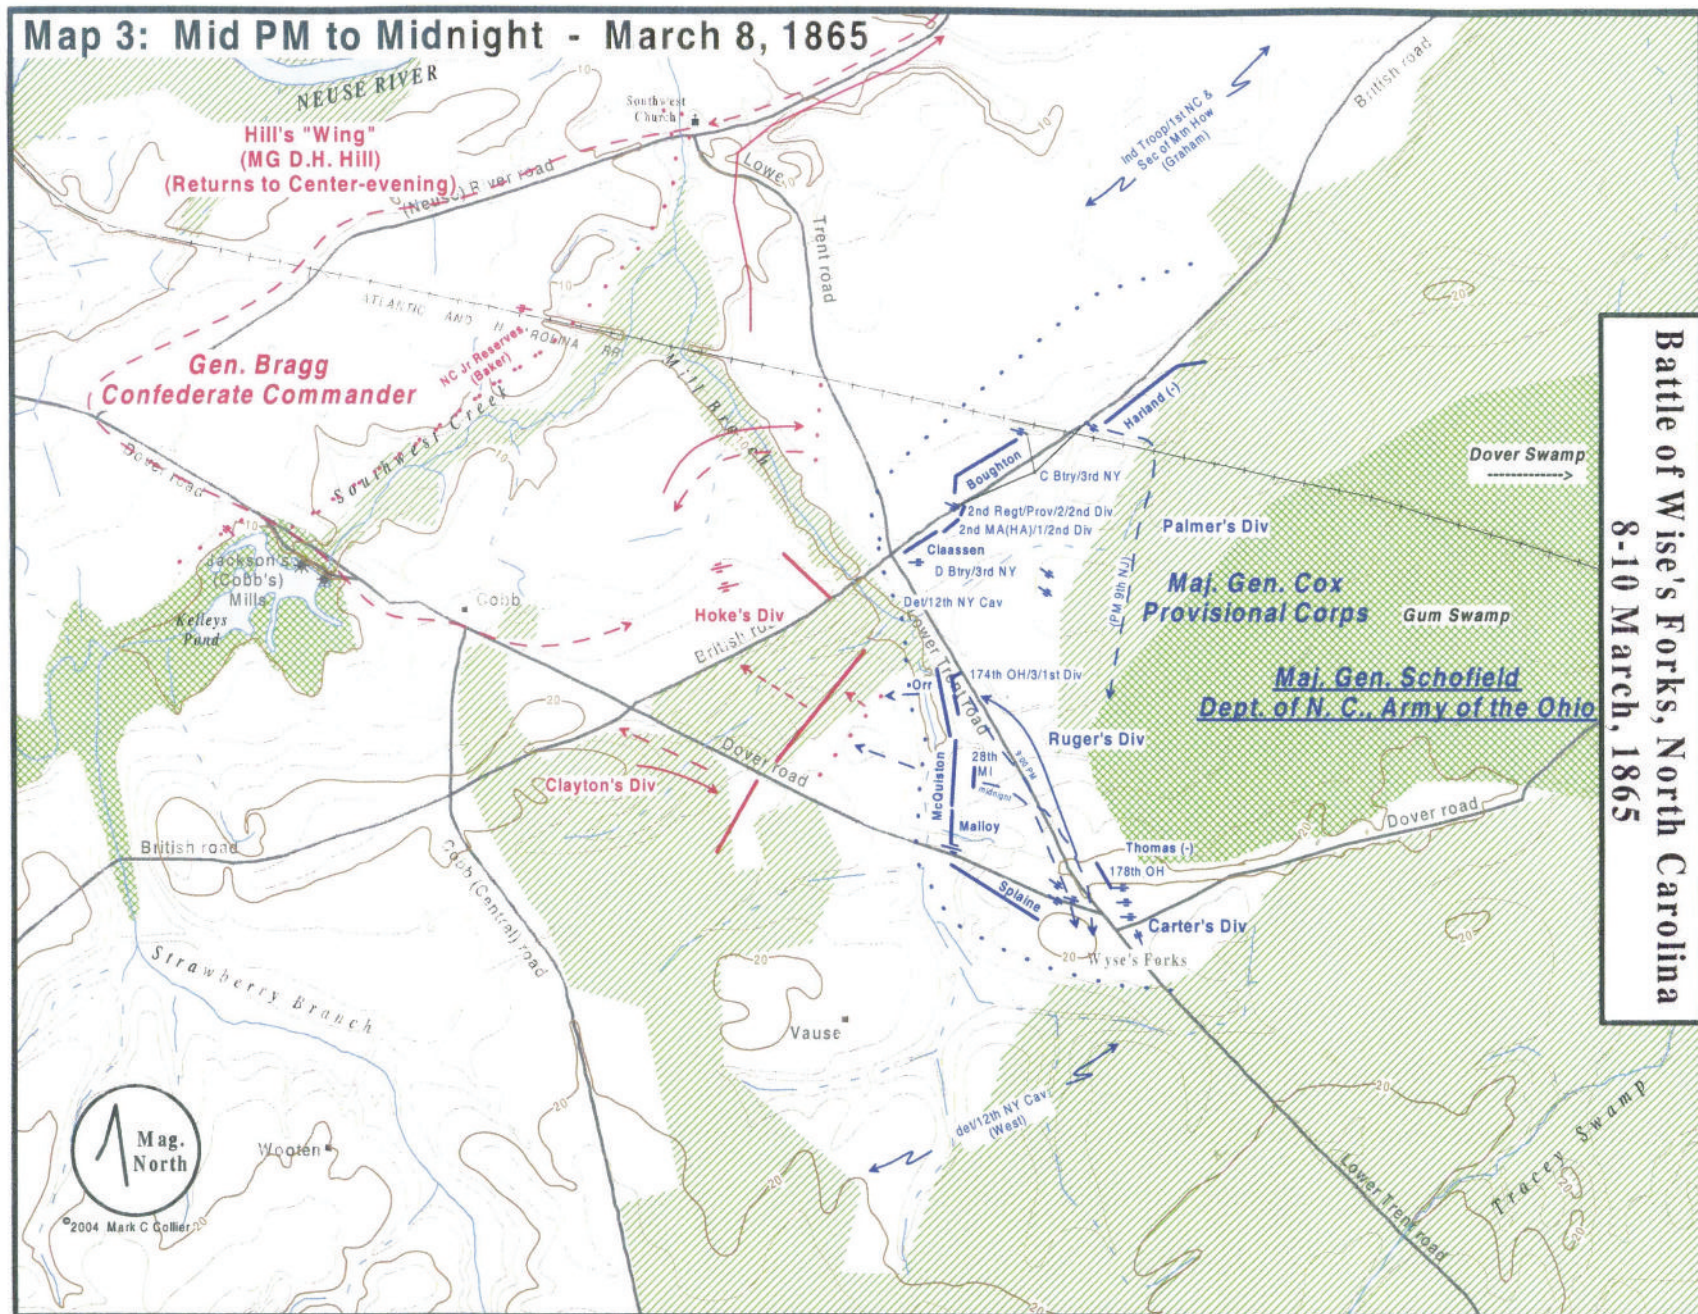

Figure 19: Actions of the Union and Confederate Troops, Mid-Afternoon to Midnight, March 8, 1865 (Collier 2004)

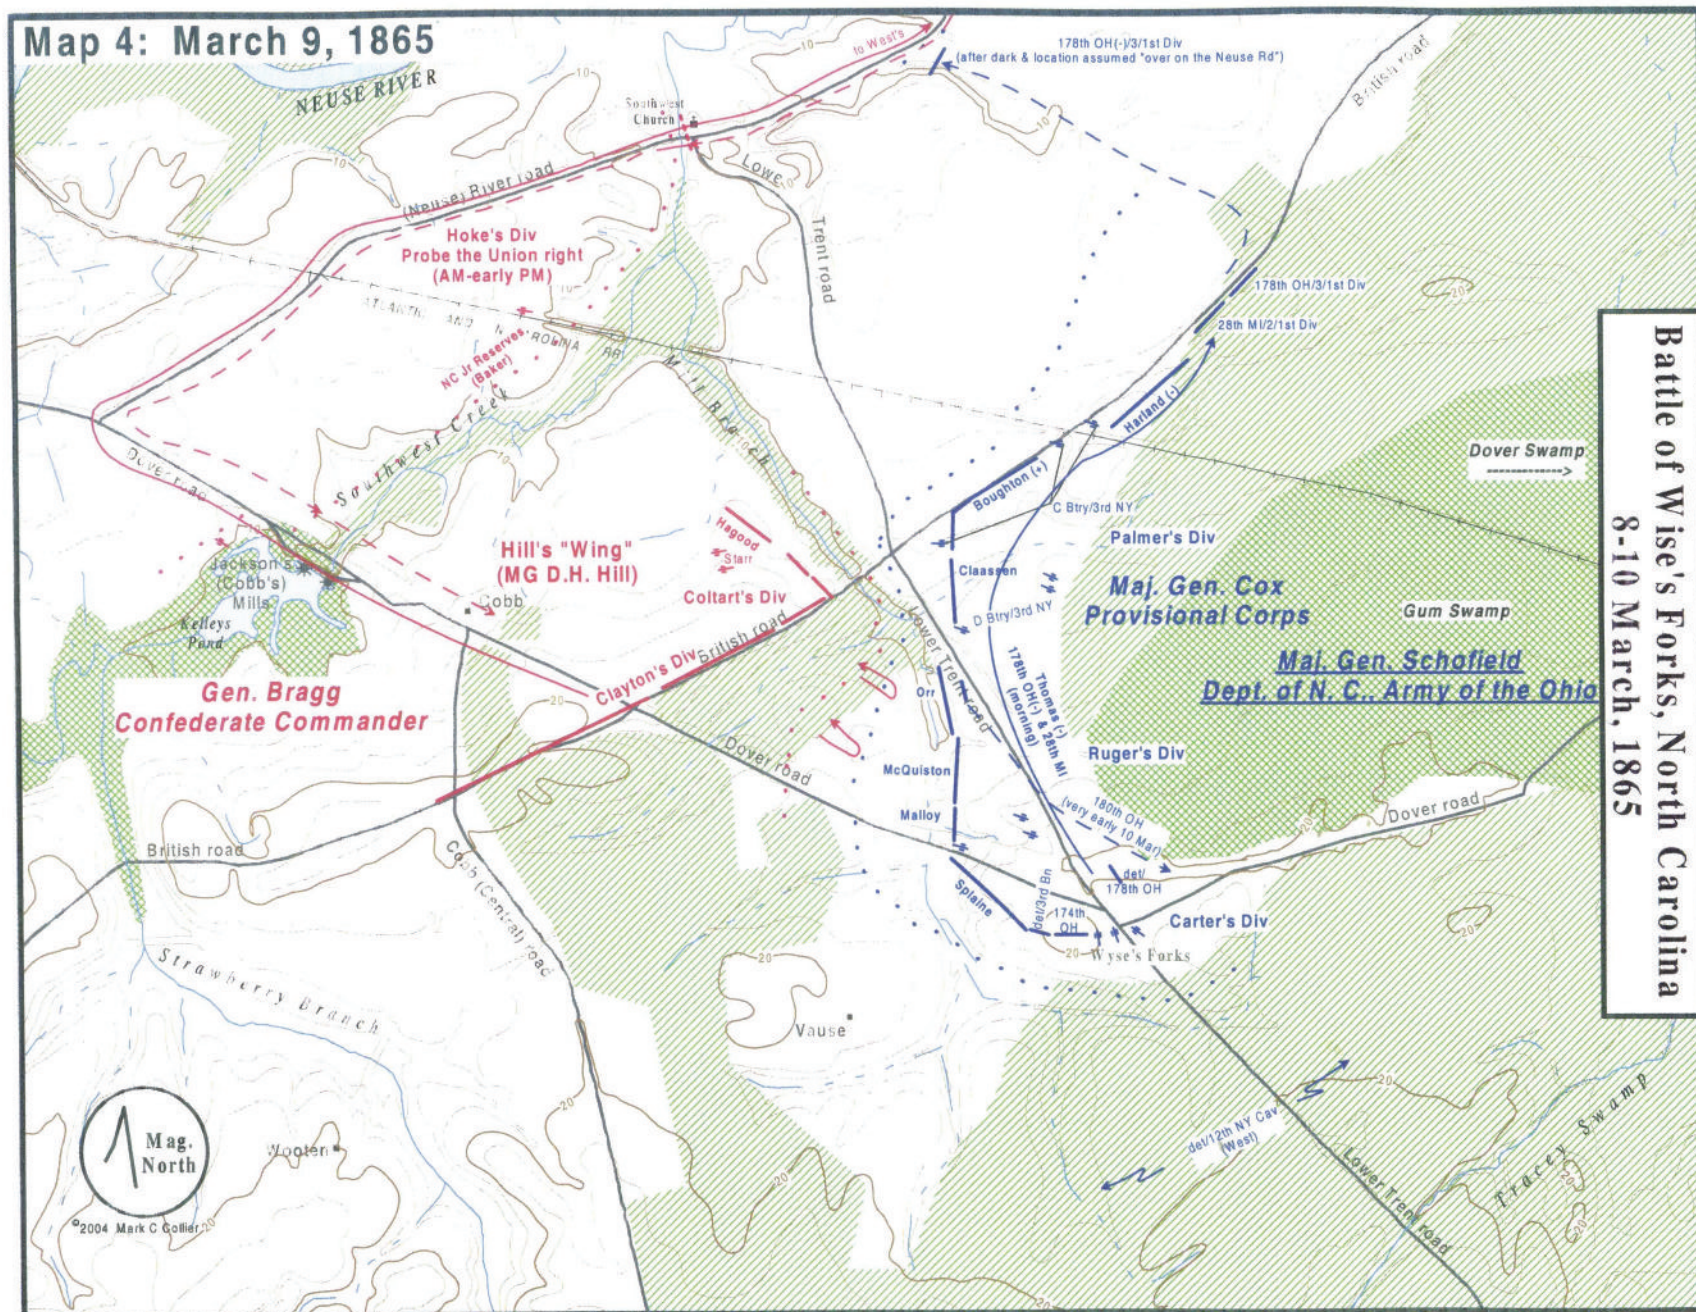

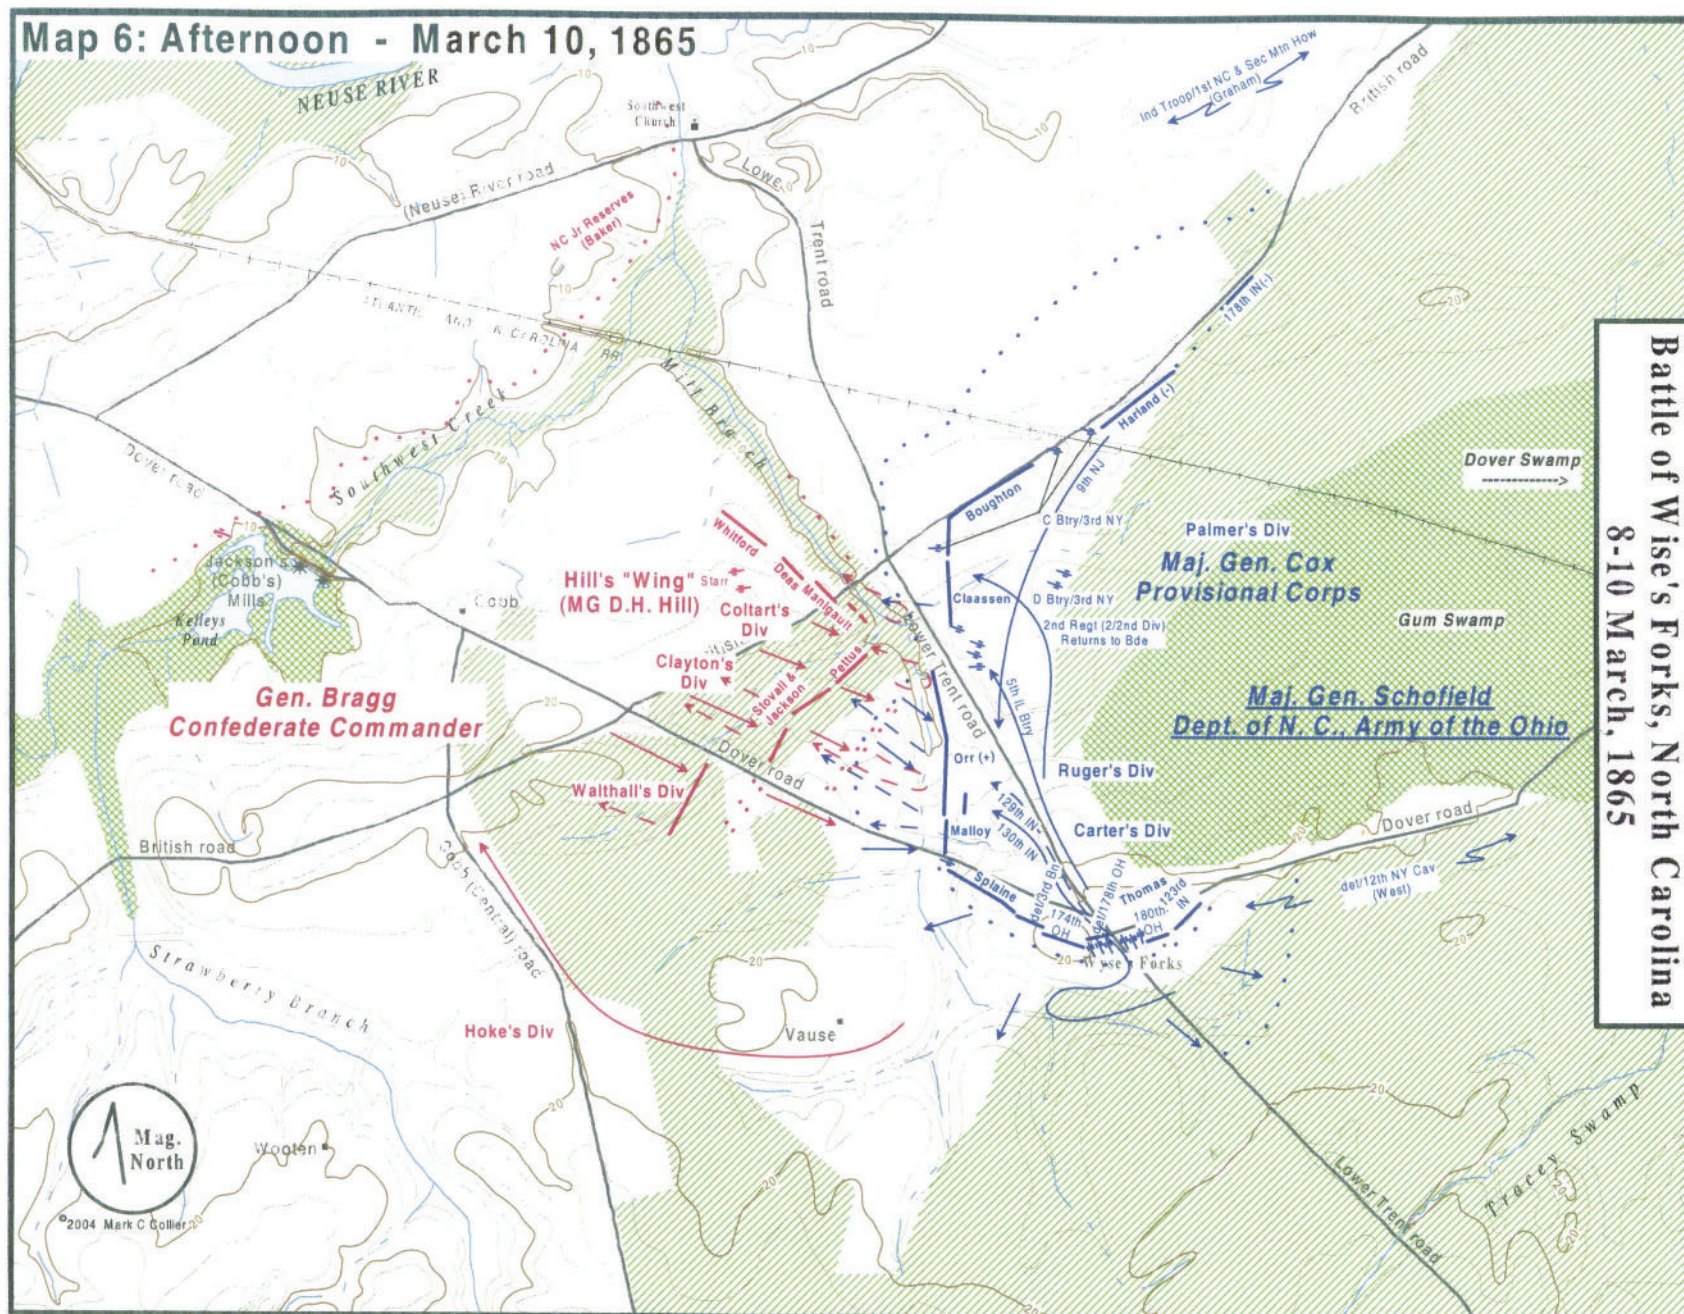

Figure 20: Actions of the Union and Confederate Troops, March 9 1865 (Collier 2004)

NEW YORK, MONDAY, MARCH 13, 1865.

THE REPORTED BATTLE AT KINSTON, N. C.

Scene of Operations on the Newbern and Goldsboro Railroad.

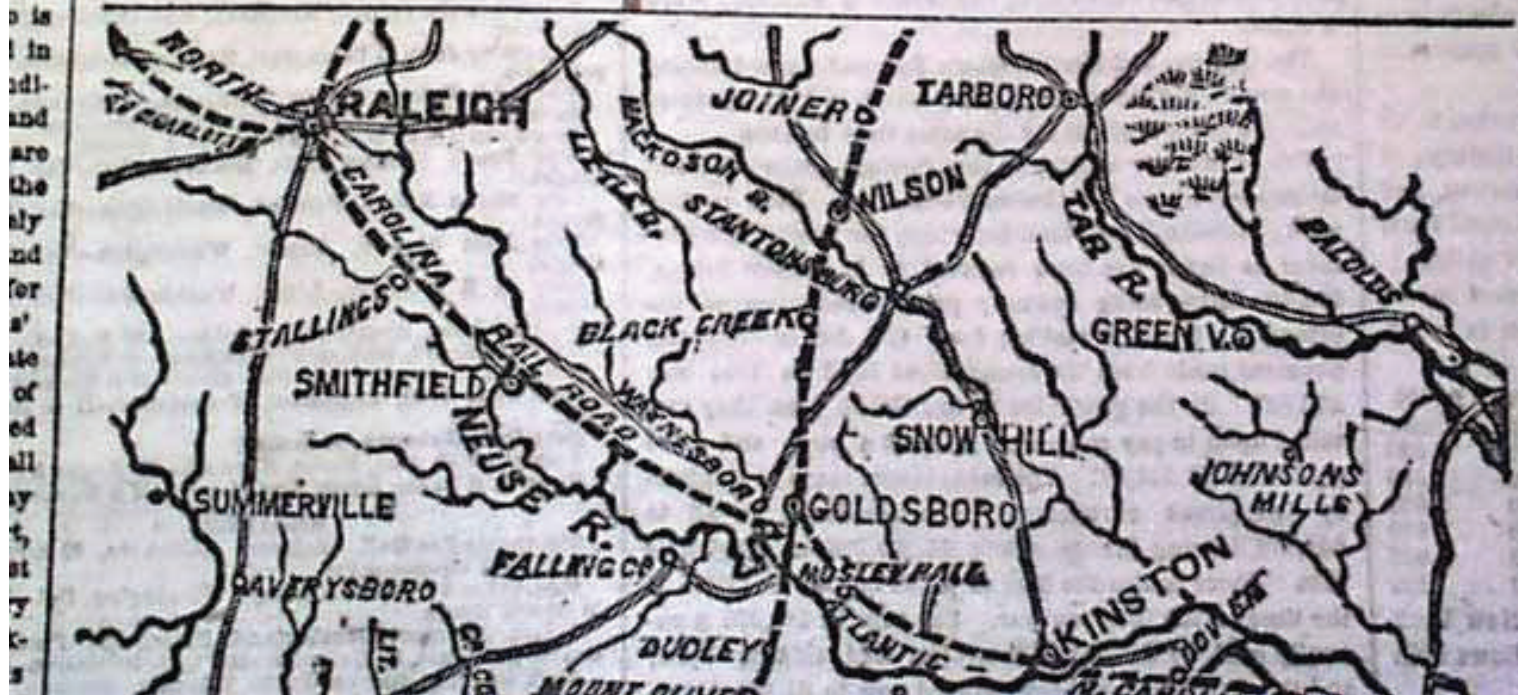

Figure 23: A Report of the Battle of Wyse Fork, Front Page New York Times, March 13, 1865

Figure 24: Distribution of Artifacts, Based on the Work of Dennis Harper

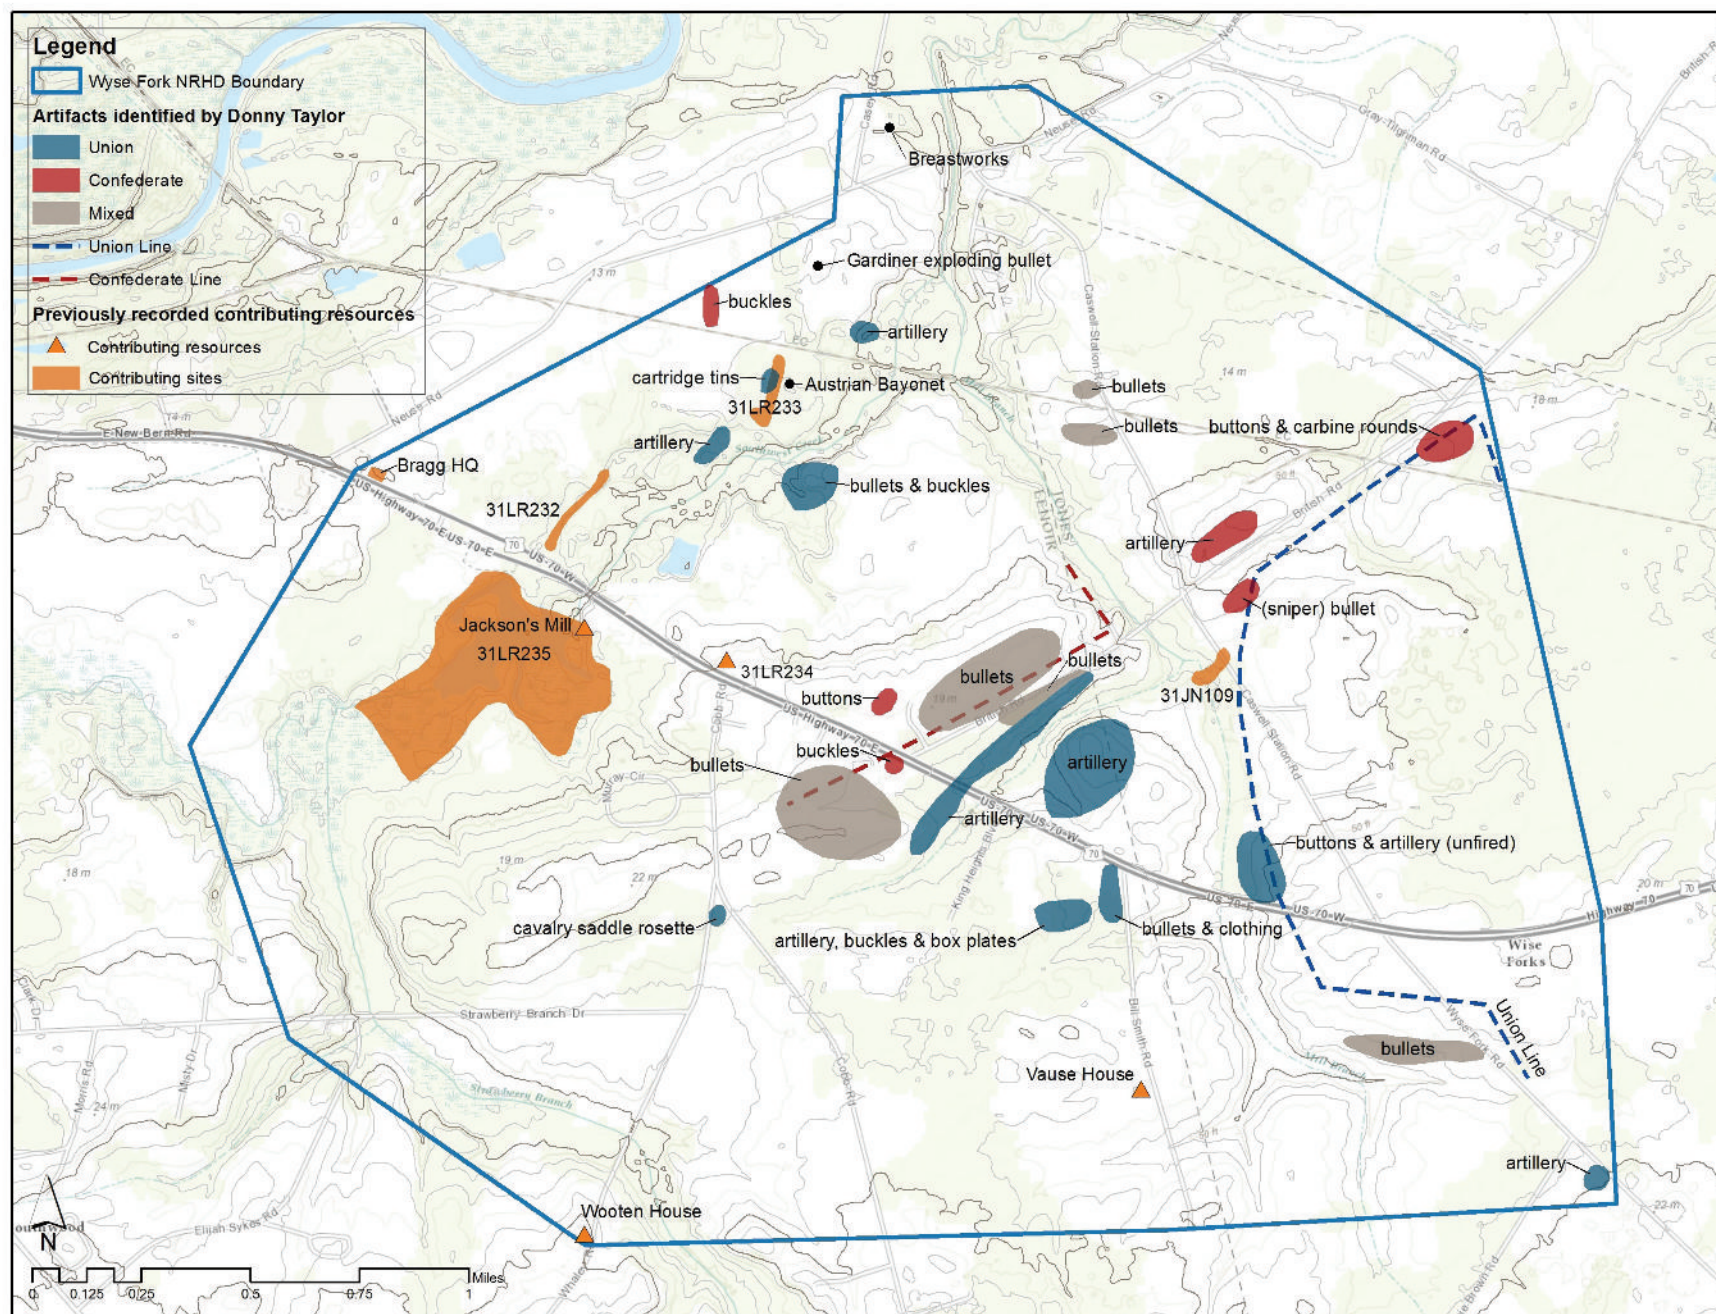

Figure 25: Distribution of Artifacts, Based on the Work of Donny Taylor